is correct?

SENATOR SAVAGE: The Journal is correct, yes. We caught it before it got in.

SENATOR MARESH: Mr. President, I would like to ask if Senator Wiltse would answer this charge that he has -- that he has some -- I guess he states -- reservations. I would like to hear from him what the reservations are.

PRESIDENT: Senator Maresh, does your question go to the correction of the Journal?

SENATOR MARESH: Yes, I wondered why this ever came up? Why the Journal was wrong.

PRESIDENT: Well, I'm gonna rule that out of order, Senator Maresh. I think the question before the House is whether the Journal is correct or not. I'll recognize you at a later time to discuss that matter. Are there any other corrections or questions about the Journal? If not, the Chair -- it will be so entered Mr. Clerk. Are there any petitions or memorials, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: None, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Mr. Clerk do you have any notice of committee hearings or reports?

CLERK: We have none at this time Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: And I take it we have no bills on final reading?

CLERK: None.

PRESIDENT: Resolutions?

CLERK: None, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Introduction of bills by reading by title?

CLERK: Mr. President, (legislative bills read: LB 127; LB 128; LB 129; LB 130; LB 131; LB 132; LB 133). That's all at this time Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Thank you Mr. Clerk. Are there any bills on select file Mr. Clerk? The Clerk advises me there are none. And is the same true of motions to reconsider?

CLERK: None, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Motions to advance bills from committee?

CLERK: None.

PRESIDENT: Other pending motions?

CLERK: None.

PRESIDENT: Senator Maresh, I'd like to recognize you at this time now for the purpose of your previous statement.

SENATOR MARESH: Mr. President, thank you. I would just like to put the body at rest that there is no -- there was no wrong action taken on my appointment to this committee and I wonder why Senator Wiltse has reservations. Probably he could talk to that.
